CITY NEWS.

-Schools are opening.

Cotton rates are unsettled. -A cold drizzle fell nearly all day yesterday. "I am for J. P.," said a waggish voter yesterday. The work of refitting the Criminal Court has been finished.

-The Congressional Convention meets day after tomorrow, -The woods are still full of candidates for magistrate and constable. -The Oc ober race meeting is beginning to create considerable interest. -The delay in cleaning out the cistern at the Cour house is making those who have business there sick.

-In the Probate Court yesterdey Sandy Painter was appointed adminis-trator of Lily and Eugene Whitmore. The Upper Massissippi Lavee District wants some of the $2,000 (00 which the River Commission has to spend this year. L'censes to marry were issued yes e day to John White and Jennie Floyd, J. T. Holland and Salije Fields,

J. D. Smith and Minnie Lee Jones. -There was only one ticket in the Fourth Ward, and it was elected as printed, with one exception M. J. Keily was defeated by nineteen votes by Chan J. Bles ing.

-Mme. Demorrat's Portfolio of Fash-ons, and What to Wear for Fall and Winter, has just been received by Mansford's Book and News house. It is a a unusual fine number, both being contained in one. Price 25 cents per

-W. P. Burbam, a drummer, had a lively little tussle yesterday with I. P. May, at the latter's stors. Burham. who is a much larger man than May, tried to down him with his fist, but the latter floored him with a c ub and was afterwards arrested on a warrant swora out by Burham, charging him with a long list of high climes and mi:demeanors.

-John Fagan, a colored blacksmith, shot another carky named Harrison Alexarder in the neck about 4 o'clock ves erday morning, at his house on Beale street. Officer Lee jailed the shootist. The would is painful, but not fata'. Alexander says his wife rents from Fagan and that the lat er found him asleep on the doorstee last night, ordered him to go away, and when he refused shot him.

-The Levee Board of the Upper Mississippi District met yesterday at Clarksdale, Miss. Nearly forty bids were opened, and the number of delagates was larger than ever attended any previous meeting of the board. On account of the desire of President White and Chief Engineer Dabney to attend the meeting of the River Commission in New Orleans, and to make an effort there to ob'ain additional funds, the examination of bids was deferred. No spards will be made for several days. Col. White and Maj. Dabuey passed through the city last night on their way to New York.

-The management of the Mission Home, 101 Alab ma street, together with the officers of the Wemen's Christian Association, under whose care it is, desire to express in this public manner their heartfelt thanks for a re ent and most opportune donation of one cer load (280 barrels) of coal from Crabtree Ceal Company, Dawson, Ky., Mr B. M. Salmon secretary; also to the Newport and Mississippi Valley railroad for free transportation of the same, and to Mr. Ayers P. Strange, egent in this city, for delivery at the Mission free of charge. The item of fuel in a household including forty helpless children is a very serious one, and help there is always gratefully appreciated.

—A Memphis telegram to the Nash ville American says: "Mr. W. G. Tay-lor, telegraph and night editor of the APPEAL, resigned his position today and left this morning for Los Angeles, Cal., which will be his future home. Mr. Taylor's removal to the mild cli-mate of California is rendered necesrary by the ill health of his wife. He is an ac omplished jourgalist, of pleaing manners and great personal popularity. He has he'd the position just vacated for ten years, and is conceded by newspaper men to be the best tele graph editor Memphia has ever had. He enjoyed the confidence of his employers to such an extent that during Col. Keating's a's nos he always offi-ciated as managing editor, and invari-ably acquited himself with credito such an extent that during He is but 32 years of age, and has worked his way up from the case, hav ing at one time or snother filled almost every position on the paper. His place in local journalism is not easily filled."

THE SENSATION

OF SEPTEMBER.

We Fall in Line for the First Fall Month.

THE SUMMER HAS ENDED.

Some Seasonable Suggestions for Memphis Citizens.

The Summer, according to the Almanae, has ended, and it is time now to think of something else than how to escape the summer heat. Fall, with its change of climate and change of clothing, is coming.

For the change of clothing which is now necessary, the Misfit Clothing Parlors, No. 262 Second street, has long been preparing. We have not been idle during the hot months, and the result of our activity is that we are now better able than ever to offer great bargains to our customers. Our field has been extended and we will be able to offer larger assortments and still lower prices.

The Misfit Clothing Parlors are now offering a fine fall stock. If you need Clothing be sure to call and inspect it. You may not need an entire suit. A coat or a pair of pants may be necessary to piece out your fall attire. Well, we have prepared for just such emergencies. We have

New Fall Suits, Handsome Bress Suits, Good Every Day Suits,

Conts and Vests. A Fine Line of Pants,

Pauts for Dress or Work All our Clothing is offered at prices which do not represent the actual first cost of the goods. By buying from us you get the finest Clothing in the world for much less than its actual value.
